transformation for sustainable trade

APPLICATIONS ARE OPEN

Who should apply?

Black candidates identified by our members and associate members who would be suitable for a development programme as meat and poultry importers and exporters.

What should our members do?

Share the link below with a suitable employee that would be ideal to take through a skills development or an entrepreneur in your value chain that is ideal for supplier development or submit nomination details here.

Members' responsibility?

Show your support and endorsement of the programme by nominations, collaboration and support of the Academy's activities. All nominators must also provide a short letter of recommendation in support of the candidate they nominate.

How do candidates apply?

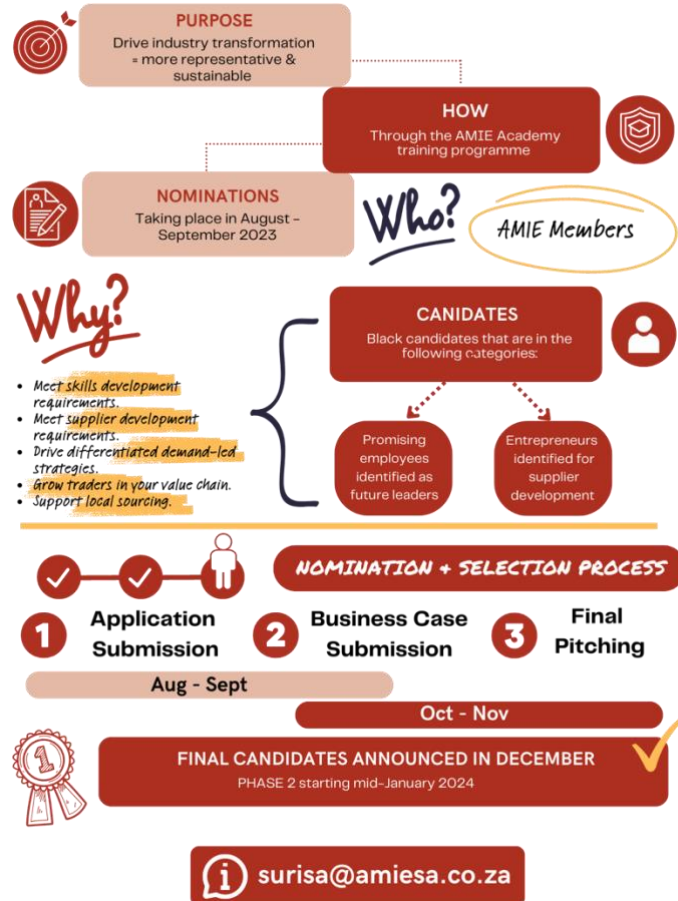

Once identified by members you can share this link (<https://forms.gle/KhvU9nzyRs89saNBA>) with the candidate, or submit your nomination here.

What then?

Hopeful candidates that submitted their application successfully will receive an email and SMS confirming their submission and they will be contacted within approximately 10 days to let them know if they have qualified for round 2.
